

"Because I am a CAC member I have had the opportunity to learn about what is being done in our state that affects individuals with disabilities & their families." ~ Eilleen CAC Member on the Community Advisory Committee (CAC) for the Center on Disabilities and Human Development (CDHD)— Idaho's University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities.

Serve

The role of the CAC is to:

- Collaborate in the development of the CDHD five year plan;
- Provide on-going feedback related to activities associated with the goals & objectives;
- Assist in the development of the mission & vision of the center;
- Provide input into the design of courses, interdisciplinary activities, & products,
- Review outcome data & provide suggestions for change across all activities.

Get Involved!

Want to Make A Difference?

We are looking for motivated people who want to work toward improving the lives of Idahoans with disabilities.

If you are a person with a developmental or other disability, a family member or guardian of a person with a disability, then please join our team!

The Community Advisory Committee (CAC) is comprised of Idahoans with disabilities, family members, and professionals. The CAC guides CDHD leaders by providing insight into The opportunities and challenges facing people with disabilities and their families on national, state, & local levels.

"It has been incredibly valuable to be connected and involved in what is happening in our state and rewarding to be part of this great group and projects." ~ Amy, CAC Member

For more information, contact Richelle Tierney:

- Phone: 208-364-4582 or
- Toll free: 1-800-393-7290
- Email: richellet@uidaho.edu
- Visit our website: <http://www.idahocdhd.org/AboutUS/CAC>